KEY MESSAGES

PRI's priorities for COP29:

Call for an enabling policy environment to facilitate responsible investment and a net-zero, climate-resilient future

Support and demonstrate investor action on climate, nature and adaptation issues

Strengthen the responsible investment ecosystem in Azerbaijan and Central and Eastern Europe

PRI's top recommendations for governments and the climate negotiations

Investors are taking climate action, but the evolution of a more enabling policy environment for responsible investment is required:

1. Ensure the next round of nationally determined contributions (NDCs), due by February 2025, are ambitious, credible platforms for investment and accompanied by detailed, whole-of-government policies to support their delivery. Important elements of an investable NDC include:
 - Clear information for investors and companies regarding where national governments seek to allocate capital for the transition.
 - Sectoral decarbonisation roadmaps with credible milestones and timelines.
 - Specifying the role of the private vs public capital, including key funding vehicles.
2. Ensure the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance (NCQG) is ambitious, addresses the needs of emerging markets and developing economies (EMDEs), and provides clear signals about the role of private finance and the policy levers for delivering it.
3. Continue to drive integration between the climate mitigation, adaptation and nature agendas.

OVERVIEW OF PRI AT COP29 AND KEY PROGRAMMES

PRI will engage at COP29 to raise awareness of the need for an enabling policy environment, support credible investor action and build regional RI ecosystems.

PRI led and supported initiatives featured at COP29:

- The Net Zero Asset Owners Alliance's 'Call to Action', calls on governments to urgently enact measures to manage down systemic risk and unlock capital for a just transition to net zero. NZAOA members will be attending COP29.
- 2024 Global Investor Statement \(Investor Agenda\): 534 financial institutions (US$29 trillion in AuM), have called on governments to unlock public and private capital flows for the net-zero transition. PRI will co-host a Blue Zone event focused on the policies needed to deliver ambitious NDCs and implement the Global Stocktake outcomes.
- PRI's Collaborative Sovereign Engagement on Climate Change has enabled investors to engage directly with the Australian Government about its next NDC. The initiative is due to expand to new markets in 2025.
- PRI co-convenes the Net Zero Financial Service Providers Alliance with the UN's Sustainable Stock Exchange initiative. SSE will host two events exploring the role of service providers, strengthening NZFSPA relationships and recruiting new members from the region.

The Taskforce on Net Zero Policy:

- The Taskforce on Net Zero Policy, supported by the PRI in a secretariat capacity, is preparing a landmark report for presentation to the UN Secretary General at COP29. This report will take stock of corporate and financial policy on net zero across the G20. PRI will be raising awareness of the work of the Taskforce at COP29, including through a public event in the Blue Zone.

Building responsible investment ecosystems:

PRI will convene its global responsible investment network and stakeholders through a signatory networking event, side events and roundtables.

As part of its drive to foster stronger regional RI ecosystems, PRI will be supporting investors and stakeholders in the Central Asian region by connecting CIS investors with PRI's responsible investor network, resources and advice.

PRI will also focus on strengthening responsible investment practices in emerging markets as well as engaging with sovereign wealth funds.
